Christmas touches

For the last few years, I have got into the habit of decorating my nails in some type of festive style. I think this is a fun way to add to this happy time and make you smile. This can be as simple or as complex as you want.

You could alternate each nail with a red and a green nail polish, or red and white with a silver glitter over the top; anything your imagination can come up with really!

This is my look for this year. I ordered the nail stickers online, and popped them over a pale nail polish with a glitter top coat. It is all a bit of fun!

Another way to add some festive cheer, is to wear Christmas jewellery, or a festive piece of clothing.

There are so many options….you can even do like me and get your dog in on the act! They'll love you for it!…..
